

INTEGRITY STATEMENT FOR AP LANGUAGE AND COMPOSITION

I, _____ certify that I will be the author of all papers I turn in.

- I will acknowledge any assistance I have while preparing the papers in full.
- I will cite all sources, including paraphrases and direct quotes.
- I will include a works cited page, when necessary, which lists all citations.
- I will add quotation marks whenever I use more than three consecutive words of another author.
- I will complete these papers specifically for this course.

If any of the above are breached resulting in plagiarism, the penalty can be as severe as receiving a zero on the assignment as well as a behavioral referral to administration.

Additionally, with the inclusion of sharing documents in gmail within our class, you are pledging to keep all documents as intended by the original author. Any unauthorized changes will result in the same penalty as for plagiarism.

By signing this document, you understand the rules for plagiarism and doctoring documents as well as the consequences.

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Statement Adapted From: Sims, R. (2002). The effectiveness of a plagiarism prevention policy: a longitudinal study of student views. Teaching Business Ethics, 6(4), 477-482.

*taken from <http://library.oakland.edu/tutorials/plagForFaculty.htm>